Lamar is seen
From many different angles.

Here, students representing diverse Races, outlooks, and ideals
Strive to be individuals
And whole within themselves . . .

. . . And faculty members demonstrating their unique Personalities, techniques, and opinions,
Emphasize the necessity
For independence within a group.

Lamar's environment offers to its people
Countless outlets for self expression . . .

... And various media through which these Expressions can be made tangible.

But in the search for self identity,
One finds others in his path . . .

. . . And realizes his importance as An integral part of the whole.

Whether he Is on His own
Or with Others.
The individual
Can find
Personal
Relevance
In student

Life.

Early risers become acquainted with Lamar's campus and with one another on the first day of school.

"Registration" was a new experience for all students.
Lamar employed this method of selecting classes
For the first time last fall.
Tables manned by class instructors were set up in the cafeteria.
Students found their favorite teachers below signs hung
High above the milling throng.

Rushing into the melée

Of signs, cards, and teachers,
Seniors and juniors first braved the experiment.
On the third day, following orientation, sophomores naively
Pushed their way through the mass confusion choosing their programs.
While these busy students were concentrating on the Academic portion of the coming year, other groups, such as the Band, Arrowettes, and football team, were eagerly practicing
For the forthcoming football season.

center left: Sophomore Julie Fekete nervously bites her nails as she tries to imagine who her new geometry teacher will be.
below: With their legs straight and toes pointed, Arrowettes fervently kick skywards during summer drill practice.

Settling down to the Busy new school year, students
Organized their time into a

Variety of activities.

The girls' sports club, Cherokee, held its Fall meeting, social clubs anxiously
Drew scores of new members, and students
Began adding their names to various club rosters.
Speech and drama students participated in first tournaments, and Organizations began their fall money-making projects.
By mid-October, the student body was fully Involved in another active year.

Debaters Elizabeth Bennett and Deborah Parker compare notes during the U of H Tourney.

For their fall money-making project, Lamar's championship swimming team scrub cars after school.

Football season with
All its glamour and excitement
Began in early September.
The first game, played in Nederland,
Fell on the eve of Hurricane Fern's threats, but a few braved
The elements to back Lamar.
Although fumbles thwarted
Success in the early games,
Pep rallies drew
Avid fans who cheered
The team throughout the season.

Exuding pride

With every step,
The Redskin Band, together
With the Arrowettes,
Captivated football crowds with
The city's best
Half-time performances.

Throughout the fall season, people
Participated in many aspects of campus life.
During football season, a few found themselves

In the spotlight

Exhibiting athletic prowess, sportsmanship, or popularity.
Redskin gridders swept the field with outstanding passing and Running attacks while cheerleaders boosted spirit.
The Lamar-Lee game proved especially exciting,
Since this event also marked the Homecoming game.
In a general election sponsored by Ramal, students chose Lisa Lockwood
Homecoming Queen and Amy Adams, Maria Constantatos, Joyce Darilek,
And Jody Fehr Homecoming Princesses.
Traditional Tawasi headbands were sold, and "war-paint"
Decorated the enthusiastic crowd.

Karl Doerner, who polled 2.5% of the vote in a field of 37 school board candidates, casts his first ballot.

Students had opportunity to use their minds and energies.
This year, students were directly affected by the new Supreme Court statute which lowered the voting age to eighteen and provided young people not only the Civic duty of voting, but also that of running for office.
One Lamar student, Karl Doerner, who ran in the 1971-1972 school board election, Exercised his new rights and became one of the many Young Americans who made history this year.
However, students were involved in activities such as drama as well as politics.
Pantomime, acting, and stagecraft were three fields of drama offered at Lamar.
Productions of the department included the Mime Troupe's Pierrot and Co., and the actors' Charlie Brown's Christmas and West Side Story.
Contributing greatly to the department's success, the stagecraft crew Designed scenery and promoted publicity.

top right: Decked in full make-up and costume, Shari Lowe hopes by her entertaining lunch-time antics to sell tickets to PIERROT AND CO.

Tutoring children

Solving equations, and mixing chemicals were Only three segments of Lamar society.
One facet came with the opportunity to tutor young Children at West University Elementary School.
These tutors, who were members of the FTA did their Jobs on their free time.
Still in its initial stages, the program is hoped
To develop into a much larger project.
For tutors and scholars alike
This program offered a new experience
In the field of education.
In Mrs. Patti Young's pilot algebra program,
Classes made use of computers to Learn algebraic theorems and in science classes,
Students learned of chemical mysteries
By experimentation.

Dribbling, lay-ups, and foul-shots soon became Common terms in late November when the Basketball season arrived.

Victories and defeats

Created enthusiasm and kept spirit high.
A change in this year's coaching staff, although Unexpected, did not phase the teams' winning potential or positive attitude.
The season proved successful for each of the three Teams — Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Sophomore.
Three tourneys — Houston Baptist, Corpus Christi, and Jaycee —
Meant trophies and excitement.
Jody Gentry, chosen representative by the Varsity team, was elected the Jaycee Tournament Queen on the basis of charm, poise, and personality.
Her election, added to Palamar's King of the Court,
Increased interest of the spectators in the Fast-moving sport of basketball.

Excitement mounted

During the month of December in anticipation
Of the holidays.
Activities choked the calendar
In the last pre-holiday
Week as various clubs prepared for the season.
Mirabeau girls sold corsages
Made from mistletoe, candy-canes, and ribbons
Which were distributed
That last Friday before vacation.
Several social and service clubs sent Representatives to various Underprivileged elementary schools
Where parties and presents were Given to the children.
Drama, debate students and coaches finished
Final preparations
For holiday tournaments.
All too soon, however,
The holidays were over, and school
Resumed bringing hard work and study for Students and teachers alike.

Spring arrived

With the beginning of the new semester.
Students participated in spring
Sports, such as baseball, track, and swimming.
Organizations elected officers for the second term.
And members created new service and Money-making projects.
Key Club continued its recycling program and Began other projects, such as decorating for basketball Games and participating in the Areas of creative arts

Which marked the opening of the second semester.
Try-outs were held in January for Lamar's talent show, the "Hootenanny."
All students were eligible to be in the show, and Talents ranged from humorous skits to musical performances.
Modern Dance Club members, dancing in black tights and leotards, met weekly.
In February, these girls performed at a PTA meeting; and in April,
They attended a meet in Huntsville, Texas.
Skills in creative writing, drawing, and photography were combined in the publications of Viewpoint, literary magazine; Lancer, newspaper; and Orenda, yearbook.
These were written, organized, and published
By the students.

Communication in foreign languages, the Key to understanding,
Is fully explored with classes offered in French,
German, Russian, Latin, Spanish, and English.
Foreign language departments
Participated in such programs as DDV
Soccer and the Latin Honor Society's Gulf Coast Tournament, which was sponsored By Lamar in February and involved more Than six hundred
Participants from thirty high schools.
Volunteers from the entire Student body worked toward furthering the efforts
Of the American Field Service program,
Which involves exchanging high school students
From one country to another.
Lamar's 1972 visitor was Tiziana Verbitz of Italy.
During her stay with Rosa Ward, she participated
In the AFS bond drive held on March 7.
The project consisted of walking door to door
Collecting donations in exchange for a
"Friendship Bond" which gave information
About the program.
Through this effort, Lamar collected enough money
To send a student to a foreign Country next year.

As summer approached,
Students were eager to leave their textbooks and Return to their swimsuits, surfboards, and water skis.
Organizations elected officers for the Fall term and began discussing future plans.
Seniors celebrated Water Gun, Tennis Shoe, and Bicycle days
Which were followed by the Senior Prom.
Awards which ranged from the Ramal Cup to the Best Second Year Spanish student were presented to Outstanding Students on Awards Day.
Soon the due dates of final exams, term papers, and Research reports pressured spring fever
Victims into vigorous study, and suddenly the year was Brought to completion.
Following Commencement on May 24,
Sophomores and juniors, as well as seniors,
Looked forward to their coming
Change in status.

KIRK DOUGLAS

January 31, 1972

Mr. Scott Williams
Lamar's Orenda
Lamar High School
2344 McClendon
Houston, Texas

Dear Mr. Williams:

It was a tough assignment you gave me. Are all the high school girls in Texas as pretty as your thirty-nine beauties? If so, my sons will be down on the next plane.

As hard a decision as it was, my choice of the nine is No. 24 - Carla Brown, No. 32 - Candy Breen, No. 4 - Lisa Lockwood, No. 17 - Deborah Parker, No. 12 - Laura Duemer, No. 9 - Patricia Sullivan, No. 16 - Kathy Waldt, No. 31 - Louise Bayles and No. 25 - Paula Tate. As the most beautiful, I will say No. 12 - Laura Duemer.

Before the repercussions start, I will now take off for Europe, but before I do, I want to congratulate all thirty-nine lovely girls and wish them and you the best of luck.

Sincerely,

Kirk Douglas

Each year the Orenda
Sponsors a Beauty Contest
Which is judged by
A leading member of The entertainment industry.
This year we are Fortunate in having

Kirk Douglas

Make the selections.
Lamar's Most Beautiful Girl
Is Laura Duemer,
And the eight beauties are Louise Bayless, Candy Breen,
Carla Brown, Lisa Lockwood,
Deborah Parker, Patricia Sullivan,
Paula Tate and Kathy Waldt.
We are very grateful to
Mr. Douglas for his help
In making the selections.

While Hurricane Fern was churning
Off the coast, the Redskins were Churning through the mud toward Five straight

Nondistrict

Losses.
Along with the weather, bad luck
And fumbles were vital factors in
The Redskins inability to win.
Greg Prickett was the offensive
Standout with an average of five Yards per running attempt.
The defense did a fine job
Against some of the toughest
Teams in the area.

District play

Started out on a much better note
With the Redskins'

Defeat of Williams.

Robert Cook, thrust into the number
One running spot by an injury to Prickett, scored both touchdowns.
David Shepherd and Spike Silver
Led the defense with
One interception each.
This victory was followed by the Redskins' smashing defeat of Scarborough.

Jim Morris and George Sands led the Offense with two touchdown runs each.
Chris Berger and Arnold Rayford,
Picking off a total of three passes,
Led the staunch defense.
These two wins brought about
The annual

Rivalry with Lee.

The major factor in the Redskins'
Loss was the rushing of the Generals'
Lawrence Burton, number one in city,
Who carried the ball 73 times
For 220 yards.
David Shepherd scored
The Redskins' lone touchdown
With a magnificent 55
Yard scoring play.
The defense played a fine game,
Considering that Lee controlled the Ball 70 per cent of the game.
Victory number three
Was a tough battle.

The downfall of Waltrip

Was highlighted by Jerry Maltz's 29
Yard field goal early in the fourth Quarter, which broke a 7-7 tie.
Gary Silver scored the Redskins' lone T.D. with
A 27 yard sprint.
The grid season for the Redskins
Ended with the disappointing

Loss to Sharpstown.

Fumbles once again spelled Defeat for Lamar.
The Redskins' lone tally came from A 29-yard field goal by Jerry Maltz.
The first half was a hard fought
Defensive battle led by Dan Alexander and Carl Wiggins.
The second half was a complete
Turnabout with the Apollos dominating.
Standouts on offense were Robert Cook and Don Brown.

Lamar's offense this year
Was highlighted by its

Swift running attack.

Led by quarterback Mason Watkins,
The Redskins rushed for 1619 yards
And passed for 516 yards.
This rushing total,
Seventh in city,
Was sparked by the tremendous
Running of Robert Cook and Jim Morris.
Had it not been for an untimely Injury, Greg Prickett would have Rated high in individual
District standings.
Lamar had the best total offense,
Racking up 522 yards against Scarborough.
Junior guard Dan Alexander was named to The All-HISD team for his exceptional
Performances throughout the year.
Tackle Larry George and Running back Robert Cook were named
To the All-District team.

Dependable coaching

And strong team spirit were the Incentives for the Redskins to win.
Mr. Jack Howton, backfield coach,
Put together a strong running game
While Mr. Joe Henry, leading the Quarterbacks and receivers squad,
Built up a fine passing attack.
Mr. Winston Boeker's group of Linebackers gave tremendous protection
To the quarterbacks and threw many Opposing runners for losses.
Much credit should be given to Head Coach Sandy Carr for putting Together this fine squad
Of coaches and players.

Lamar's

Hard-hitting defense

Was pitted against some of the Finest offensive teams in Houston.
Rated eighteenth in the city,
The Redskins allowed an average
Of 244.7 yards per game.
This record is impressive
Considering its competitors.
David Shepherd and Harry Goldberg
Led this fine defense, while
Other standouts were Warren Tashnek,
Dan Alexander, and sophomores
A. C. Cartwright, and Carl Wiggins.
Senior back Shepherd was named to the All-District 19-AAAA team for his Outstanding performances throughout the year.

Led by Coach Jerry Dean,
The Redskins'

Junior Varsity

Marched toward a promising
Three win — six loss season.
The offensive line was given
Much credit in detaining the Opposition's defense.
Due to this protection,
Quarterback Michael Longoria
Was able to lead his team in
A running and passing attack.
The staunch defense, holding
Two district rivals scoreless,
Was a key element in the three
Win — three loss district record.
The Varsity should be strengthened
Greatly with the addition of These fine players.

The Redskin cagers, led by Coach
John Meehan, once again placed

First in district,

Finishing the regular season with
A 25 win — 9 loss record.
David Marrs was the outstanding player
Due to his 22 point game average,
Fine rebounding, and leadership.
Senior David Kee provided the speed
Necessary for the fast-break offense
And had a game avetage of 12 points.
Rick Behrend was the most consistent
Player and scored an average of 13 points.
Mike Leguillon, another returning varsity Player, saw limited action while Jim
Peacock, Winfred Butler, Glenn Lott,
Pete Castles, Charles Henson, Robert
Sparlin and Larry George, made fine
Additions from last year's J.V.
Mason Watkins and Thomas Brandenburg
Were promoted from the J.V. at

The Redskin cagers finished

Nondistrict competition

With a record of fifteen wins
And eight losses.
Even with the absence of Center David Marrs, the Redskins
Placed second in the Houston Baptist College Tournament held during the Thanksgiving holidays.
Their only pitfall was the 92-60 loss to
The defending city champs, Wheatley.
David Marrs and Rick Behrend were selected
To the All-Jaycee tournament team as the Lamar cagers finished in third place
Behind Wheatley and Yates.
The highlight of nondistrict competition
Was the Redskin's near upset of Their arch-rival Wheatley.

District play started out on a high note with
The Redskin's romp over Williams.
David Marrs led all scorers with 18 points,
While Rick Behrend and David Kee scored 16
And 14 points, respectively.
Though the Redskins got into foul trouble
Early, they easily beat Williams in their Second meeting of the season.
The Redskin's quick offense proved too much
For Scarborough as Lamar defeated them twice.
David Marrs averaged 20 points for the Two games, while David Kee and Winfred
Butler averaged 14 and 9 points, respectively.
Thomas Brandenburg scored 16 points,
Playing only in the second game.
Showdown I against Lee was a hard-fought
Battle with Lamar coming out on top.
Winfred Butler led all scorers with 19
Points, while Rick Behrend and David Marrs
Followed with 18 and 12 points.
The Redskins were leading by 13 entering
The fourth quarter, but Lee held them for Only five points and won
The second game by one.
David Marrs still led Lamar with 20 points,
While Rick Behrend scored 16.

The Redskins continued in district competition against Waltrip and Sharpstown.

David Marrs scored 23 points, while Rick Behrend poured in 13.
The Redskins jumped to a 15-4 first quarter
Lead and went on to beat Waltrip.
The second Waltrip game was another thriller.
Lamar was behind most of the game but Outscored the Rams twelve to five in the last Four minutes to gain their eight point win.
David Marrs scored 28 points, followed by Rick Behrend and Jim Peacock with 18 and 13 points, respectively.
The first bout with Sharpstown was an easy one.
Lamar increased its first quarter lead to eleven
At the half and had no trouble gaining their 20 point win.
David Marrs hammered in 24, followed by David Kee and Mason Watkins with 16 and 15, respectively.
The final game against Sharpstown was an important one.
Although Lamar was trailing by three after the first quarter,
They managed to trounce the Apollos and win district.
David Marrs scored 20, along with David Kee and Winfred
Butler with 13 each and Rick Behrend with ten.

The main key to the Redskin's baseball
Success this year was Good players.
Under the fine leadership
Of Coach Jerry Dean, the Diamondmen fared well.
Returning lettermen pitchers
Were James Ingram
And Carl Mautz.
Scott McGovney, Donny
DeSale, Dan Alexander, Jim
Morris, Doug Bandy, and Spike Silver were other
Lettermen returning to aid
The team again.

The presence of many fine
Players led the way for a

Successful season

For the Redskins.

Coach Brad Gentry led the

Tennis team

Successfully in fall competition.
After losing the first match of the year
To Memorial, the Redskins were
On the winning track.
The netters placed third in their division
In the Fall Conference.
With outstanding returning talent in Mike
O'Leary, Mel Cody, Gene Crain, and Greg Goodman, and newcomers Kevin St. John,
Bill Dukes, and Dan Hallman, the spring
Competition proved to Be equally productive.

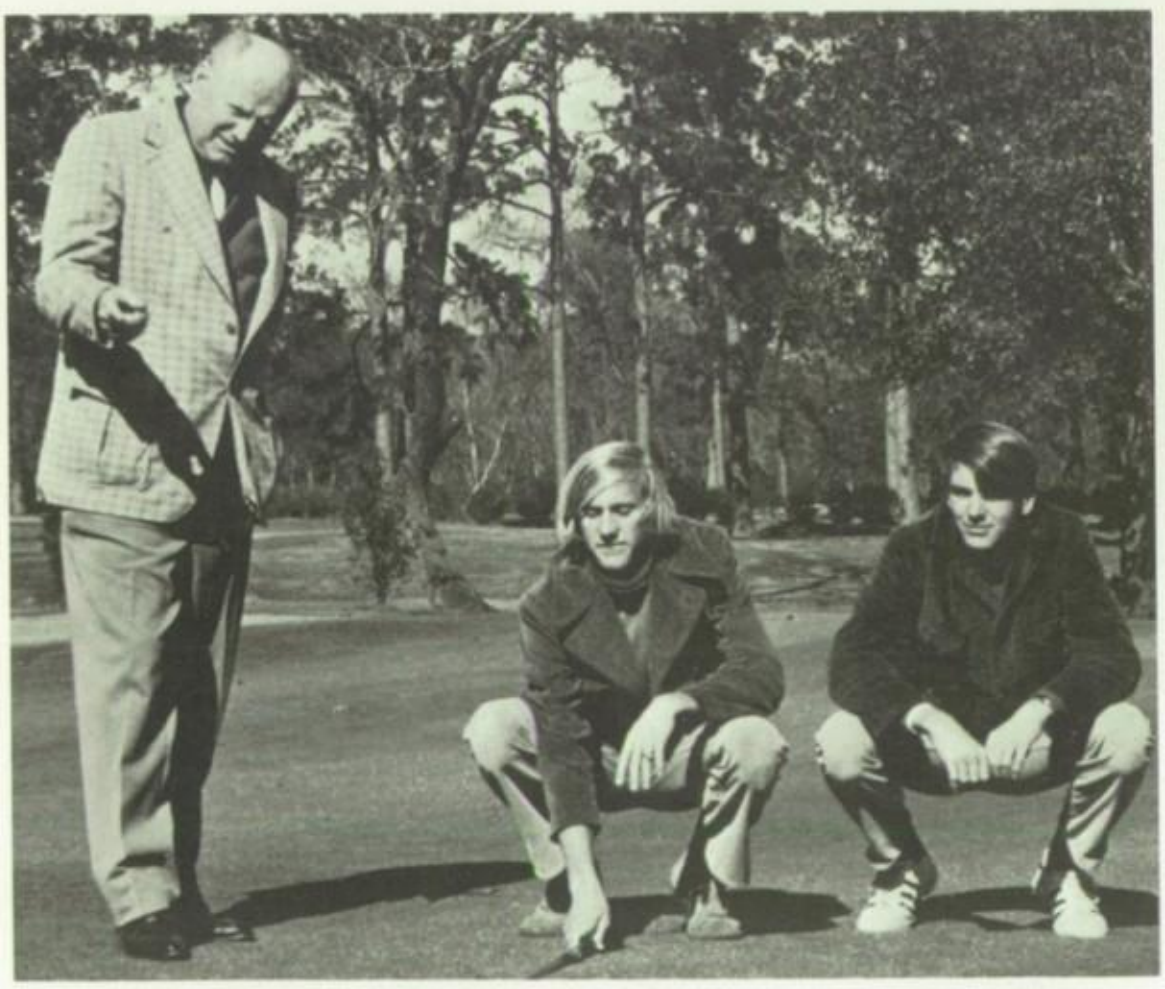
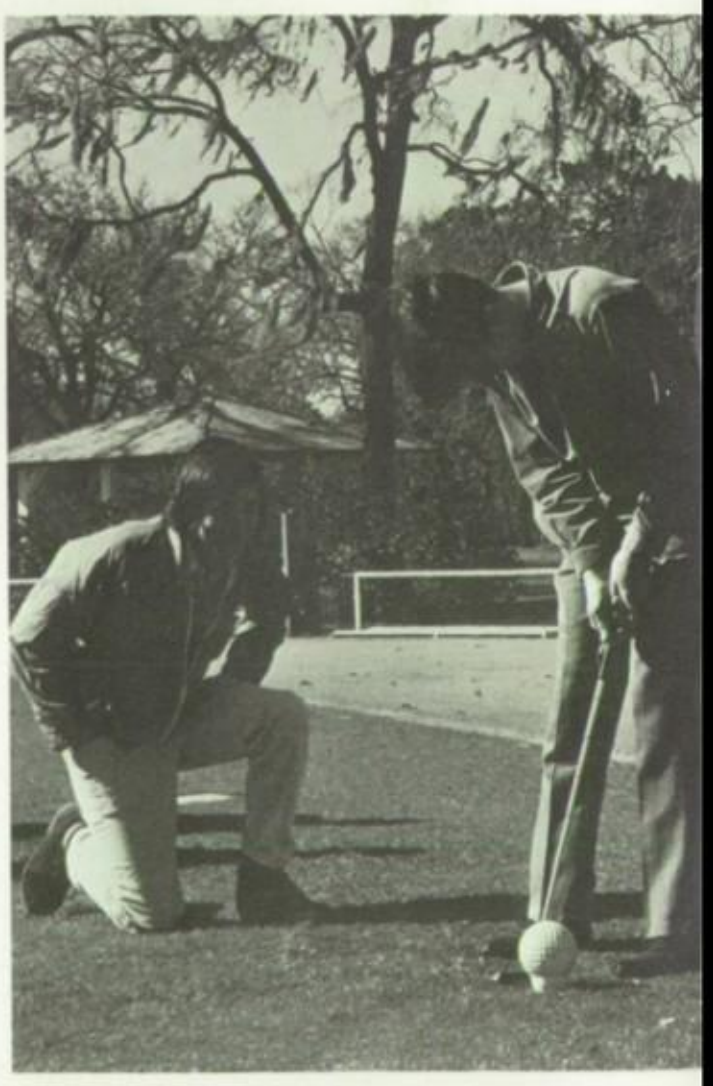
Billy Grimes, Clark Thompson,
Stuart King, and Gary Brown, the

Golf team

Fared well this year
Under the leadership of Coach
Don Longcope, these players
Improved greatly and presented
Tough opposition
To other teams.
The addition of sophomores
Danny Crowley, Stuart Fred,
Lawrence Hermes, and Todd
Sattler gave much needed
Depth to the team.





Coach Louis Dee led Lamar's

Bowling team

Against stiff competition.
Each team played a different
Squad each week, and the team
Of Platt Thompson, Ted Williams

Reporter Nancy Pugsley and club editor Ann Blunt worry about their story for the next edition.

With three

Editors

For the first
Time, the Lancer
Was published in a
More efficient manner.
With the help of
Their staff, Kent
Hueter, Peter Johnston,
And Steve Sucher put Out a newly devised
Biweekly edition.
Covering all school
Activities and special
Events, the editorial
Staff met all deadlines.

Editors Steve Sucher and Kent Hueter go to great lengths to find interesting pictures for the Lancer.

Typing stories proves to be a tedious job for editor Steve Sucher and humorous writer Sarah Bissex.

Ricky Mitchell and Susan McClory try to write a clever caption for the Christmas edition of the Lancer.

Mary Manning finds Molly Montour's way of keeping records humorous.

Catherine Clegg accurately organizes business records.

Catherine Clegg headed
A larger business
Staff this year.
Keeping all records
And soliciting

Ads

For the newspaper,
The staff completed
The year in a Successful drive.

Karen Bond, Joan Grigassy and Suzanne Webb find the special section amusing.

Nora Garcia, Tommy Belinoski, and Debbie Deschner discuss their staff directors chores.

Viewpoint originated Directly from the Student body.
It has been recognized
As an outstanding

Magazine

By the Texas and
Gulf Coast High
School Press Association.
Last year the book
Received an All-Texas
Rating, an award
For excellence.

Looking for ideas for the essay section are staff members Sue Gibson, Becky Dukes and Kathy Unverzagt.

Jeania Jones, Kayt Gregory, Ann Wright, Bryant Smith, and Eileen Schuster go over Viewpoint instructions.

The poetry department is headed by Ann Blunt, Stuart Donalson, Corky Pumilia, and Janis Page.

Karen Orler, Margaret Innis, Debra Woods, and Pat Sullivan evaluate short story entries.

Volunteers led
By Mrs. Loep,
Gave their time
To compile student

Literature

Under various Sections which Included Art,
Essays, Poetry,
Short Stories,
And Photography.
After many weeks
Of diligent
Work, Viewpoint
Was finally Completed and Distributed in May.

Kathleen Lutz, LaRita Booth, Nora Czigan, and Pam LaForge, develop ideas from a previous Viewpoint.

In the Search for Knowledge
And Understanding.
The individual
Finds that he May seek Guidance
From the Faculty.

With the uncertainty concerning
Busing, and the changes on the School board, school opened
August 26, 1971 —
As scheduled.
Leading Lamar through those Troublesome first days was the Principal of Lamar since 1963,
Mr. Harold K. Costlow.
With superb experience and

Sincere dedication

To education, Mr. Costlow
Considered the individual
Person the most important
Aspect of school life.

Mrs. Renee Feeney/Librarian

Mrs. Margaret Chaplin/Assistant Principal

With the coming of the new school year,
The four counselors
Were faced with a dilemma.
How were they going to place the Expected 2300 students in classrooms?
The solution to this problem was to have a

Registration day

For each grade.
The new mode of registering for classes
Replaced the old system of Running for classes.
Lamar was privileged as it was the only
School in the HISD allowing
Students to register for their own
Classes and teachers.
With the solving of the registration problem
The assistant principals' and the Counselors' attention was turned to the Problems of the students and the Complications of program changes.

Mrs. Mary K. Staats/Registrar

Members of
The Office Staff were Busier than ever
This year.
Keeping track of the students
Was the daily responsibility
Of Mrs. Hopper
And of Mrs. Rivers.
With the retirement of Miss Dunn, Mrs. Walker moved
From the Attendance Office to
The Registrar's where she Became financial clerk.
Mrs. Licata was again
The school nurse, and Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Edwards, and Mrs. Staats all returned
To the jobs they Held so aptly last year.

New English courses,
Running the gamut from the Traditional to ultra-modern
Offered a universal appeal at Lamar.
Those branches of knowledge concerned with Man and his culture form the Humanities course.
The Afro-American course concerned
Itself with the study and Understanding of this culture.
Emphasizing the depth and quality of William Shakespeare was the aim of a
Course which penetrated into selections
Of his prose and poetry.
Contemporary Literature as interpreted Through current plays, short stories
And novels was offered.
A fifth course, Reading, was to Aid in reading speed and comprehension.

Mrs. Dorothea Smith/Reading

Mrs. Jo Underwood/English

English teachers continued
Their program
To enrich the student's Knowledge
Of grammar and literature.
Workbooks were used
Diligently while
All English classes
Prepared for college
Entrance boards in the fall.
Although new books
Enhanced the Literature program greatly —
Novels, dramas, and
Other selections
Supplemented the reading.

Lamar's Foreign Language Department
Was greatly aided this year with a
Donation of teaching aides
Made in memory of the late
Mrs. Dorothy Blackledge,
A teacher of Spanish for ten years.
Included in the equipment were a
Record player, records,
A tape recorder, tapes, foreign Language books, and dictionaries.
In the fall, the first

Roman games

Were held.
Discus and javelin throwing,
Chariot racing, and grape eating
Were among the contests.
In the spring, the Latin Department
Was the host school for the Gulf Coast Classical Convention.

The quality of the Social Science Department
Was further increased by
The introduction of

Problems of democracy

A completer course
For English history.
To update the advanced Government classes, a new College text was used.
While special interest in
All government classes
Was generated by the Eighteen-year-old vote,
Students of economics
Studied the causes and Effects of President
Nixon's Economic Program.

Two special mathematics
Courses supplemented Lamar's
Regular math program.
Computer math,
Taught by Mrs. Patti Young,
Helped Algebra II
Students not only to Solve problems but
Also to learn the Complexities

Of a computer.
The computer terminal
Outlet had a telephone and Teletype lines connected
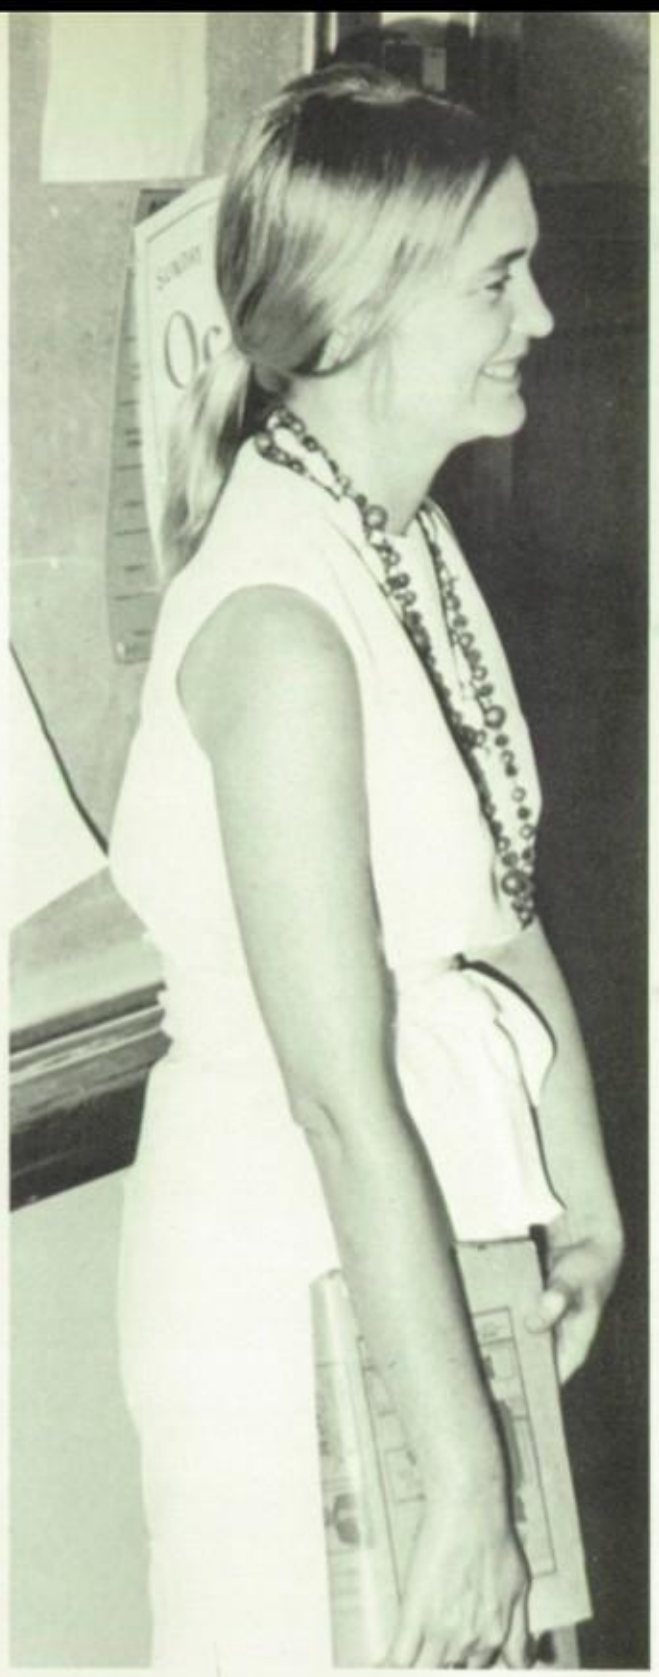
With the regional
I.B.M. system.
A consumer math study
Was offered to any
Non-college bound students.

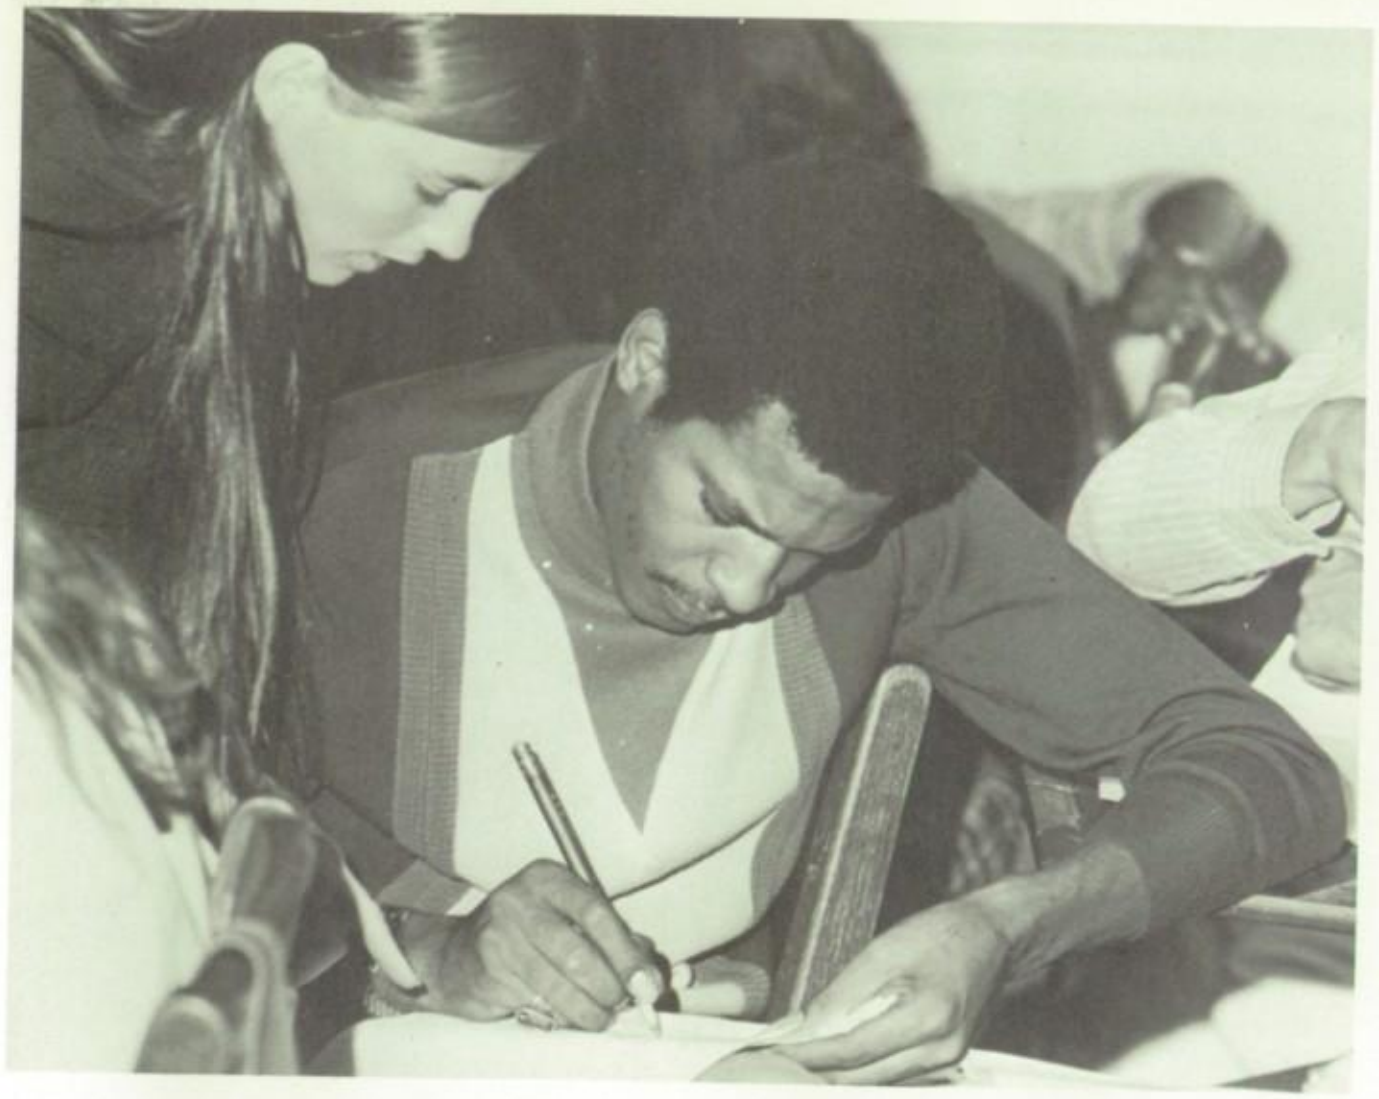
Mrs. Marjorie Eason/Trigonometry, Calculus/Arrowhead

Mrs. Patti Young/Algebra, Trigonometry/Future Teachers



Mrs. Anne Huband/Geometry, Algebra

Mr. Donald Meador/Geometry, Algebra



Mr. Kenneth Brown/Related Math, Geometry

Mrs. Leslie Perry/Geometry, Algebra

A study of numbers,
Measurement, and space,
Lamar's Mathematics
Department offered

Fresh insight

Into this specific study.
Courses ranged from Related math, geometry, and
Algebra to higher courses
Including trigonometry,
Elementary analysis,
Analytical geometry, and Calculus.

Mrs. Joan Power/Biology/Ecology Club, Science Club

Mrs. Mary Windlinger/Biology

Miss Christine Nicknish/Biology, Chemistry

With the addition of new Courses and the combination
Of old ones, the Lamar Science
Department discovered

New facets

Of teaching.
For the first time, a team
Teaching course in Biology I was offered.
The combination of Physiology and Biology II
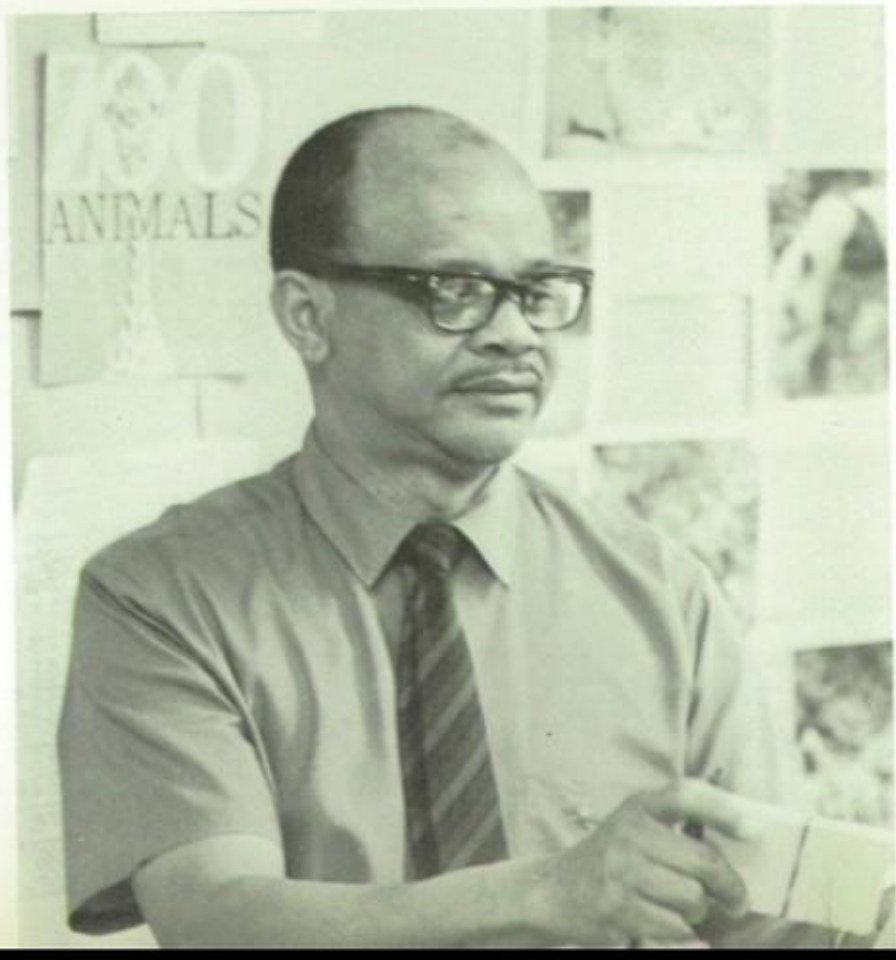
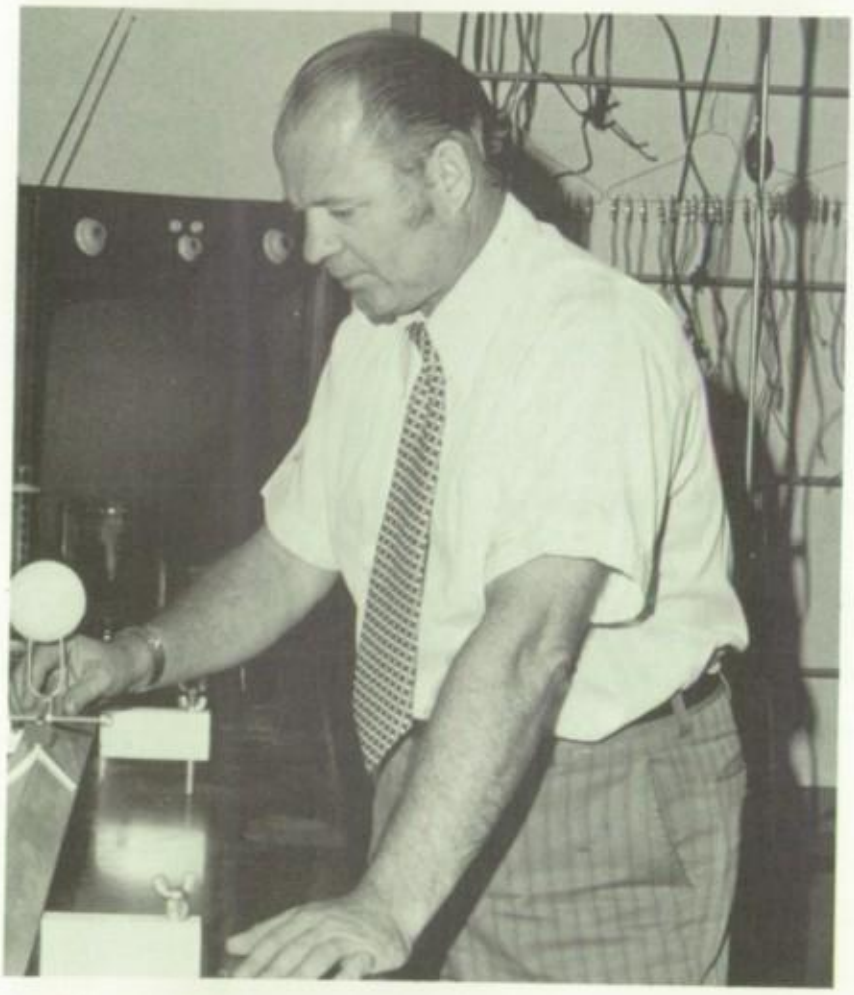
Was another innovation.
Three levels of chemistry
Were available: General, regular,
And major works, each having
A different textbook.

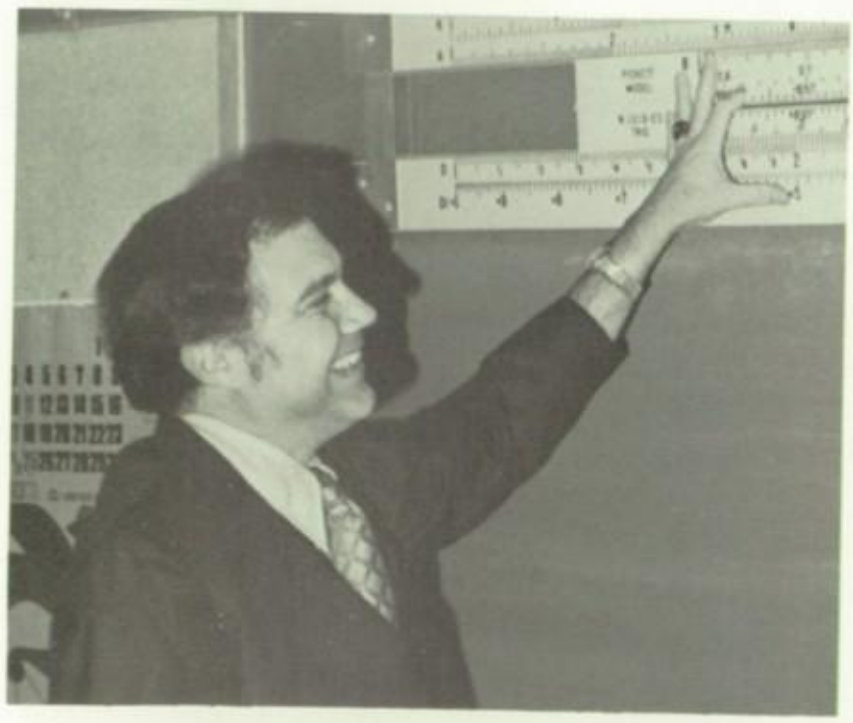
Mr. Edward Thomas/Biology, Physical Science



Mr. Joe Wilkins/Chemistry/Interact, Astronomy Club



Mr. Brad Gentry/Physics, Math/Tennis Team



Mr. Richard Shaw/Chemistry, Biology II, Physiology/Pow Wow

Mr. Willie McGowen/Biology

Mr. Dennis Phillips/Biology, Oceanography/Key Club

Through specific activities
And exercises, the Physical Education Department programed
Physical fitness for all students.
In addition to team sports, boys
Were offered tumbling and weight
Lifting while girls participated
In the intramural competition
Offered by Cherokee.
Joining the coaching staff this year,
Mr. Henry and Mr. Howton, strengthened
The already fine leadership.
All students profited from

Active participation

In physical education.

In contests occupied the time of Lamar's

Special arts

Students.
While the Mixed Chorus presented a Dinner theater entitled
The Perils of Priscilla Peachblossom,
The Choralettes sang in Houston with visiting Celebrities, Danny Thomas and Sammy Davis, Jr.
They also traveled to California and
Austin to perform at various openings.
Art classes enjoyed creativity during regular Curriculum and participated in a Key Club
Service project by painting large
Containers to resemble canned drinks.
The collected cans were then taken
To be recycled.
The Drama Department continued Mime Troupe,
A pantomime group, and enjoyed a Performance by Marcel Marceau.
Both Drama and Mixed Chorus participated in The spring musical, West Side Story,
While debaters studied in depth the present
Jury system and how it should be changed.

With the addition of a VOE course,
The vocational program bridged the gap Between high school training and Business experience.
In the course, the students spent
One-half day in regular school
Training and the remainder of the Day in on-the-job training.
The VOE students received their training
At school while CVAE participants
Received theirs at their jobs.
Students in the vocational program
Arrived at the

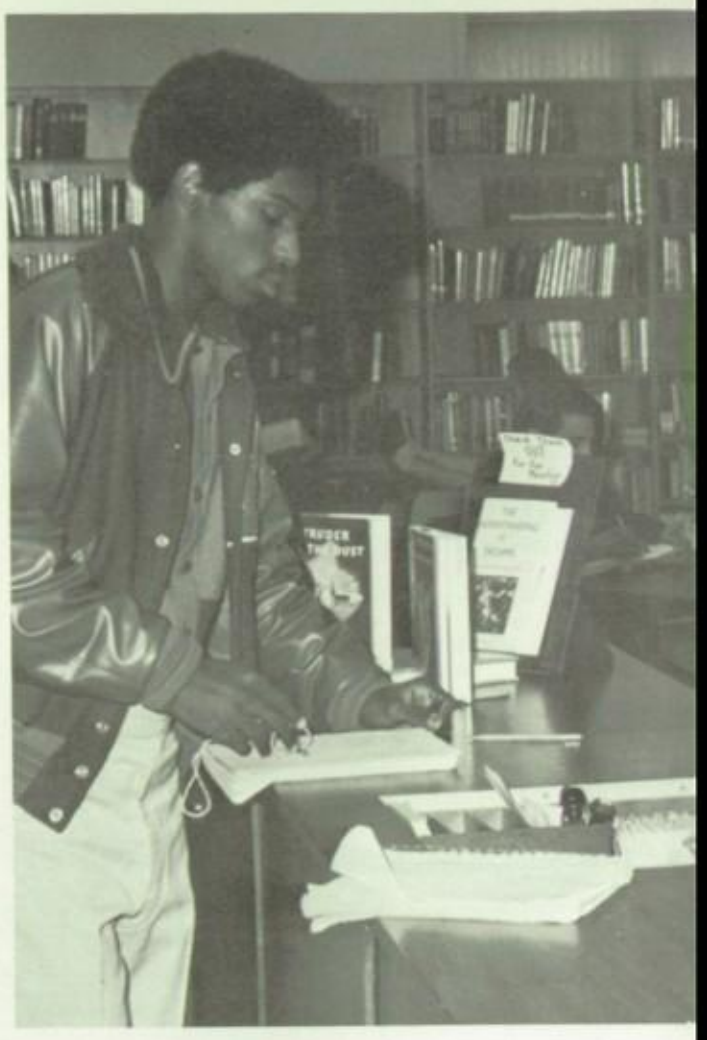
During his study hall, David Doherty familiarizes himself with the microfilm reader.



Under the scrutiny of John Thompson, Freddie Hobbs checks out of the library.

Lamar's library provided
Students with more space than Any other HISD library and an Abundant supply of materials for Reading, listening, and duplicating.
Primary sources as far back as 1857 offered valuable research
Material for teachers and students.
Over 1100 varied recordings
Ranging from classical to folk Music were obtainable in the Listening post.
Also available were various types
Of copy machines and duplicators.
The vast selection of over 20,000
Books supplied material for both
Enjoyment and study.

Having read all about the latest hot rods, Danny Schuhmacher turns in his magazine to David Thornton before heading back to class.

John Walker uses the copy machine to duplicate some valuable material for his research paper.

Curious as to where the book she wants is, Stephanie Tipps checks the card catalogue.

Needing magazines for their assignment, Rosemary Henry and Jim Schindler flip through the Reader's Guide.

Alfred Honeycutt pauses to study the total effect of his painting.

Mary Chesshire threads a macrame design, one of the newest fads in art.

Ingrid Bell is intrigued with the forming and shaping of his sculpture.

Billy Gotsdiner meticulously adds the finishing touches to his creation.

Lamar's arts department
Kept busy with a
Myriad of projects.
Miss Filson's and Mrs.
Thomas' classes worked on Viewpoint entries, sculpture,
And silkscreen Christmas cards.
When school resumed after the Beginning of the year, the Students focused their attention
On painting to music.
Graphic arts was new this year
And the participants learned the Process of lithography.
With the use of heavy machinery,
The students were able to make Programs and other helpful aids.

Learning the process of lithography. Rigoberto Gauna and Ventura Lopez prepare the camera to make slides.

Editor's note

Orenda 1972 is a mixture of diverse personalities, emotions, and talents. In putting together this yearbook, I hope we have been successful in depicting all facets of life at Lamar.

The making of an annual is a gigantic task and my greatest thanks and admiration go to our sponsor, Mrs. Mary Smith. Without her help and understanding this book would not have been possible.

Working under unceasing pressures, the combined staffs managed to live through the year virtually unscathed. My warmest expressions of appreciation go to Angie Archer for her good sportsmanship in doing over layouts, Mike Bellmont for his creative way of cropping pictures, Beverly Coffey for keeping up with club activities, Kay Craig for creating a new Limelight format, Mary Lois Farrar for her helpfulness in taking over the index, Jimmy Fourmy for his diplomacy in dealing with the faculty, Carole Gregory for efficiency and willingness to help others, Callie Hudson for her immeasurable help in every conceivable way, Robert Kolin for his cooperativeness in meeting deadlines, Cathy McLeod for making the second deadline a great deal easier, Sally McLeod for staying up late to work on Orenda, Deborah Parker for her artistic layouts, Susan Schoenvogel for her efficiency and organization, Susan Shainock for her extra help in writing copy and captions, Ann Wilhoit for her handling Girls' Sports with ease, and Lynne Wilson for her unending search for interesting pictures. Thanks are also due to Head Photographer Peter Marsh and to Staff Photographers Paul Chan and Terry Latson for their vital work and extra help during deadlines.

Mrs. Glen Chase and the Business Staff worked throughout the year in dealing with the financial aspects of the Orenda. My thanks go to Mrs. Chase, Business Manager Susan Hamm, and Staff members Lynn Bernard, Jack Brown, Jack Campbell, Sally Hall, Thomas Lytle, and Patricia Sullivan.

The professional photographers Kaye Marvins, Foley's, and Provine Studios willingly gave us their extra help and Mr. D-Eon Priest of Taylor Publishing Company sacrificed his time and energies to make our job a great deal easier. For their friendly cooperation, I thank Student Council sponsor Mrs. Pam Young and everyone at Lamar and at home who helped us with our day-to-day crises. I hope this book is enjoyed now and in the many years to come.

F. Scott Williams
